10:30am – 12:15pm

The Sutter Room at The Regency Center
1290 Sutter St., San Francisco, CA

Thank you for participating in our conversation on the future of health care in San Francisco. We understand how important health care is to you and value your thoughts and perspectives on how we can serve you better.

Moderator: Warren Browner, M.D., MPH, CEO, California Pacific Medical Center

Panelists:

- Helen Archer-Duste, COO, Kaiser Permanente San Francisco Medical Center
- Anni Chung, MSW, Executive Director, Self-Help for the Elderly
- Edward A. Chow, M.D., Executive Director, Chinese Community Health Care Association; Chief Medical Officer, Chinese Community Health Plan; Commissioner, San Francisco Health Commission
- Mitch Katz, M.D., Director, Department of Public Health
- John Williams, PharmD, COO, Northeast Medical Services

After our panel is completed, there will be an opportunity to ask questions. Please write your question and email on the card on your seat and give it to staff walking up and down the aisles. If your question is not answered today, we will email you a response as soon as possible.
